

Vulnerability Reporting Policy

At Nova Tools, trust is our #1 value and we take the protection of our customers' data very seriously.

The Nova Tools security team acknowledges the valuable role that independent security researchers play in internet security. As a result, we encourage responsible reporting of any vulnerabilities that may be found in our site or applications. Nova Tools is committed to working with security researchers to verify and address any potential vulnerabilities that are reported to us.

Please review these terms before you test and/or report a vulnerability. Nova Tools pledges not to initiate legal action against researchers for penetrating or attempting to penetrate our systems as long as they adhere to this policy.

LEGAL INDEX PAGE

Testing for security vulnerabilities:

Whenever a Trial or Developer Edition is available, please conduct all vulnerability testing against such instances. Always use test or demo accounts when testing our online services.

Reporting a potential security vulnerability:

Privately share details of the suspected vulnerability with Salesforce by sending an email to security@novatools.io

Provide full details of the suspected vulnerability so the Salesforce security team may validate and reproduce the issue.

Nova Tools does not permit the following types of security research:

While we encourage you to discover and report to us any vulnerabilities you find in a responsible manner, the following conduct is expressly prohibited:
